INSURANCE BILLING, INSURANCE RIGHTS & INSURANCE DISCLOSURE INFORMATION

I, the patient, have made a contact through my employer with an insurance company to provide for third party reimbursement for medical care. As the patient, I am responsible for understanding, fulfilling, and having full knowledge of my insurance benefits, limitations, and restrictions.

I further understand and accept responsibility for complying with all such stated restrictions, limitations and provisions of my individual insurance policy. A failure on my part to comply with my obligations could result in a reduction or denial of my insurance benefits.

As a member of a PPO or a Managed Care Plan, I understand that my insurance company has set forth a system of guidelines to be utilized for reimbursement. By not meeting the guidelines deemed to be my responsibility I may severely limit or restrict my benefits. If I am seen today for a problem and do not have the appropriate referral number, all treatments for said problems could be severely limited or reduced. I accept the responsibility to make sure that I have met my criteria for my insurance company with my individual plan.

I further understand that I may have lab work/blood work that may be covered under my plan. However, this lab work/blood work may not be as inclusive as Steven M. Pounders, MD usually prefers. Blood tests such as HIV Viral Load and Essential Metabolic Analysis are two tests my insurance company may or may not cover under my plan.

It is my responsibility to understand my policy and if charges are not covered, I will be responsible for them.

I also understand that any additional costs involved in collecting an outstanding balance not covered by insurance will be the sole responsibility of the patient, including but not limited to:
$30 for NSF/returned check, $35 no-show fee, necessary attorney or collection agency fees, and/or interest.
